JOHN R. BONNELL, REVENUE COL-LECTOR, IN THE CITY.

Liquor Business Is Flourishing Terre Haute District-Guests at Local Hotels.

"Everything in the Fifth district, as well as the Ninth district, is favorable to a Republican victory," said John R. Bonnell, revenue collector for the Terre Haute district, who was here last night. Mr. Bonnell is really at home in both districts. While he retains his residence at Crawfordsville, he spends the greater part of his time in his office at Terre Haute and is thus familiar with the situation in both tricts," said he, "and particularly among of affairs should be continued."

According to Mr. Bonnell's figures the liquor business is flourishing in his district. The business of his office amounts to $1,000,000 and more each month. Sept. 1 a distillery at Vincennes, which has been in the hands of a receiver, will be opened with a capacity of 2,300 bushels of corn a day. This will make the revenue business | Company, be declared bankrupt. The petiof the district $2,000,000 a year greater than it is at present. Mr. Bonnell says that for the year ending June 30 the receipts of his office aggregated $17,500,000. The Peoria, ed Henry W. Lehman receiver. Chandler lil., district led the list, with receipts maintains that I amounting to $31,000,000. The Terre Haute of his liabilities. district was second. The Cincinnati district was third, showing receipts amounting to $15,000,000.

PROUD OF DELPHI.

M. A. Ryan Says It Is One of the Pictuesque Towns of the State.

"Delphi is one of the most picturesque towns in the State," said M. A. Ryan, a Carroll county Democrat, who was at the Hotel English last night. Although a Democrat he is warm personal friend of Representative Landis. He said last night that Mr. Landis's son, who has been ill with typhoid in Delphi that has typhoid," said Ryan, "and mothers of the town are using these two cases as a means of keeping their boys from going swimming in Deer creek. They tell them if they do not keep out of the water they will get the fever, and the warning has the desired effect. Although a stanch Democrat, Mr. Ryan admits that Representative Landis will probably be elected. It seems to be the understanding in the district that the Democrats will nominate L. J. Kirkpatrick, of Kokomo, to make the race against Landis. Just why Mr. Kirkpatrick will accept the nomination few people can understand, since the district is heavily Republican.

Will Soon Go to Europe.

It is announced that George F. McCulloch, president and general manager of the Union Traction Company, will leave for th East to-day to join Mrs. McCulloch. Next week they will sail for Europe for a several weeks' stay. C. W. McGuire, assistant to the pres-

Mr. Anderson has described him to me Bertina Thompson, Evansville, Minn.; Mary as being quite quiet and patient, taking no interest in anything or anybody. There were times, however, when he was roused into frenzy, during which no one was able to manage or soothe him except his father, to whom he was passionately devoted. The Duke of Norfolk's heir now, should he die unmarried, is his brother, Lord course: Gold medal, Edna A. Sigler, Wheel- | Edmund Talbot, who married a daughter of the Earl of Abingdon. I have heard it said recently that it is not at all unlikely Ind.; Edna Kathryn Huntington, Valparal- that the Duke of Norfolk will marry again,
